Gladys Smith

(April 16, 1950 - January 10, 2017)

Gladys Flemmings Smith, age 66, passed away on January 10, 2017. Gladys was born in Clarksville, Texas on April 16, 1950 to Jimmie and Clara Flemmings. She was a Denison Graduate in the Class of 1968. Because she was short, she couldn't be a flight attendant; therefore, she went to work at Texas Instruments in Sherman, where she retired after 40 plus years of service. She was an active member of Mt. Zion in Denison, where she served as an usher and supported the choir.

She is survived by two sons: Marvin Flemmings, and Garrick Smith; Mother, Clara Mae Flemmings; her loving ex-husband, Marvin L. Smith; two sisters: Wanda McDaniel and Darlene Hewitt ; six brothers: Ed Flemmings, Archie Flemmings, Joe Flemmings, Billy Flemmings, Kelvin Flemmings and Marcus Flemmings; Eight Grandchildren, Jackson McBride, Hailey Flemmings, Katlin McBride, Yazmin Smith, Jaden Flemmings, Kyla McBride, Lisa Bruno, Elijah Flemmings. Gladys is preceded in death by her grandparents, Father Jimmie L. Flemmings; siblings, brother James A. Flemmings and sister Delphine Flemmings-Patterson.

Gladys will lie in repose Friday, Jan 20 for public viewing beginning at 12 PM (noon) until 8 PM in Waldo Funeral Home.

The Home Going Celebration will be Saturday, Jan 21 at 11 AM in the Trinity Lighthouse Church in Denison. Rev. Raymond England is the Host Pastor and Officiating the services is Rev. Michael Braxton and her pastor Rev. Alonzo McLean will deliver the eulogy.

The funeral cortege will then proceed to the Garden of Love on the grounds of Cedarlawn Memorial Park in Sherman where Gladys will be placed in her earthly bed.

Arrangements have been entrusted to James E. Smith and the professionals of Waldo Funeral Home, Sherman, Texas.
