
Joyce Marie (Griffith) Young(1944 - 2016)

On Monday, February 29, 2016, Joyce Marie Griffith Young answered Heaven's call. She departed this earth peacefully and landed safely in the arms of her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Joyce was the oldest of seven children born to Timothy & Vivian Griffith on June 26, 1944, in Sherman, Texas. She was raised in Denison and attended Terrell Elementary and Terrell High School, graduating in the class of 1962. After graduation, she moved to Houston and attended Texas Southern University. She was employed by the Bunnyland School, and also worked at Prudential Insurance Company for a number of years.

Joyce relocated to Dallas where she met and married Curtis J. Davis. To this union, one son (Curtis) was born. She was later married to Harold Young.

Joyce was an avid reader of the Bible. She also studied and learned about herbs, vitamins, naturopathic cures and remedies. As a medical missionary, she traveled throughout the United States and other countries sharing and applying her knowledge. Her greatest passion and joy in life was helping others and sharing her faith with everyone she encountered. She would always take time to advise others about their health, and she had an "herb" for everything that ailed you.

Joyce leaves to cherish her memories, her parents, Timothy & Vivian Griffith of Denison, a son, Curtis Davis (Tari); grandchildren, Joshua & London; brothers, Michael Griffith (Loretta) of Red Oak, Hugh Griffith (Machalle) of Mesquite; sisters, Agnes Griffith Douglas (Doug) of Desoto, Sandra Griffith Jones of Dallas, Winifred Griffith Jones (Greg) of Midlothian; and many cousins, relatives and friends.

A memorial service will be held Saturday, March 12, 2016 at 11 a.m. at Ledbetter Baptist Church, 4116 Leesburg St., Dallas, TX, 75212.
