

Mrs Thressa Ann "Tee" (Wilson) Malvern(1948 - 2015)

A Celebration of Life, honoring Mrs. Thressa "Tee" Ann Wilson Malvern, age, 66, Denison, TX, will be held at 11:00 am on Monday, February 16, 2015 at Mount Zion Baptist Church in Denison. Reverend K.W. King will officiate. Interment will follow at Fairview Cemetery. Visitation will be today from 12:00 to 6:00 pm followed by family hour from 6:00 to 7:00 pm at the Cravens Funeral Home, located at 225 W. Brockett St in Sherman.

Thressa was born on July 12, 1948 in Denison, TX, the daughter of Charles and Rosie Wilson. She received her formal education from the Denison Public Schools, and was a graduate of the 1965 class of Fred Douglas High School in Oklahoma City, OK. Thressa loved Jesus Christ, and as a child, she excepted him as her Lord and Savior while a member at Pleasant Grove Baptist Church in Denison. In 1967, she married the love of her life, Mr. Wilbert Malvern Sr., and the two made a home together for over 47 years.

Thressa was employed 17 years with Texas Instruments and also worked at Blue Cross Blue Shield. She also was the owner of Record Emporium in Denison. She was an active chairperson for many years with the Anderson-Terrell Senior High School Alumni, and served as secretary of the Denison NAACP. She was an active member of the Mount Zion Baptist Church of Denison, where she was a longtime choir member and served on various church auxiliaries. "Tee" as she was affectionately called, was a kind and loving woman who always shared her smile with everyone. She loved spending time, surrounded by her family.

On Wednesday February 11, 2015, Mrs. Thressa Ann Malvern entered in to eternal rest. Awaiting her in glory are: her beloved parents and sister, Charlene Stevenson.

She is survived by: her husband, Wilbert Malvern Sr. of Denison, children; Thressa (Kenneth) Agnew of Mansfield, TX, Wilbert Malvern Jr. and Misty Malvern, both of Denison, Wilbert (Phylis) J. Malvern of San Antonio, Steven Malvern of Wichita, TX and Derek Malvern of Seattle, WA, sister, Elaine (James) Luper of Sherman, brothers; Woodie (Linda) Wilson of Denison, Dale(Cheryl) Wilson of Rockford, IL and Charles Wilson Jr. of Oklahoma City, OK, many grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and other relatives and friends.

Please send all flowers and cards to 731 N. Tone Avenue, Denison, TX 75020.

The Malvern Family is under the Personal Care of the Cravens Funeral Home.
